COLLEGE BOUTS START TONIGHT

Near Sell-Out Reported As
Coast Boxing Championships
Open At Capital Auditorium

SACRAMENTO, (UP)—Officials reported a near sellout today as 50 boxers from eight western colleges awaited opening of the Pacific Coast Intercollegiate Boxing Championships tonight in Memorial Auditorium.

First bout of an opening night card of 20 fights will start at 8 o'clock. Finals will be held tomorrow night.

Participating are University of California, California Aggies, Santa Clara, San Jose State, Washington State, University of California at Los Angeles, University of Idaho and University of San Francisco.

The Idaho vandal squad, led by Heavyweight Champion Ross Sundberg, arrived in advance of the other teams yesterday and went through a brisk preliminary workout.

Washington State, 1937 winner, also came to town with another great team. The Cougars were established as the pre-tournament favorite.

Most interest in any of the eight weight classes centered in the lightweight division, where almost every college had a strong contender.

Paul Waller, captain of Washington State and 1937 champion in this division, was considered certain to encounter stiff opposition.

U. C. L. A., with a seven man team, ranked as a probable dark horse.

Pairings for first round fights were to be made at noon. The fighters will compete in the following divisions:

115, 125, 135 (lightweight) 145, 155, 165 and 175 pounds and heavyweight (open).

In another bracket which promised some interesting arguments, the 155-pound class, Ed McKinnon of Washington State, national collegiate champion, appeared to pace the field by a comfortable margin.

The California Aggies are hosts.

Placerville Office Total
$13,800; Diamond Reports

United States Savings Bond sales at the Diamond Springs postoffice during the year ended August 31, last, amounted to $2,831.25. This is according to Postmaster J. W. Landis of Diamond Springs, who is advised that the showing ranks the office 42nd from the top in savings bond sales among the approximately 225 third class postoffices of the state.

The total of bond sales for the Diamond Springs postoffice for the last three calendar years is $4,566.25, Landis said.

At the Placerville postoffice, John Nelson, assistant postmaster, revealed that the total of bond sales for the calendar year ending on December 31, last, was $13,800.

The twelfth birthday of El Dorado Chapter, Order of De Molay, will be observed with the chapter's annual banquet and entertainment at the Masonic Hall in Placerville on Friday evening, April 29.

The plans for the evening contemplate a dinner followed by an open meeting of the chapter at which the Majority Service degree will be conferred on six candidates. This will be followed by a short entertainment.

Master Councilor Arthur Hackwood has named Charles Coleridge to be in charge of arrangements for the occasion. The dinner, chapter meeting and entertainment will be open to all friends of the order.

THIEVES VISIT POLICE BALL

FORT WORTH, Tex. (UP)—Thieves are no respecters of the policemen's night off. They stole three coats and two hats from automobiles, while the owners were dancing at the policemen's annual ball.

RIOTING—Disorders provoked by Nazis in Vienna against the plebiscite on Austrian independence resulted in street fighting between Nazis and Fatherland Front men. The riots preceded by a day seizure of Austria by the Germans.

15 CLUBS ENTERED FOR SOFT BALL

Entries Close On April 4
And League Meets April
5 To Map Games

Supporters of the proposed county softball league met Wednesday night at the P. G. & E. Company offices with Coach L. A. Brown presiding as acting chairman.

Fifteen clubs have thus far signified their desire to enter the league. They are Pacific Service Employees, Foresters of America, Used Car Cubs, Cammino, Diamond Springs, Twenty-Three Club, Hangtown Cubs, El Dorado Chapter of De Molay, Placerville Motor Parts, Primer's Devils, Lions, Round Tent Cafe, Forest Service, American Legion and the Duffy All-Stars.

League rules were amended to provide for a total roster for each club of twenty members including a playing manager. A committee will wait upon the supervisors to see what can be done toward lighting the playing field.

The league will use a 12-inch concealed seam ball and will be governed by the rules of the joint committee on rules of the American Softball League with such special regulations as a committee of three headed by Coach Brown may recommend.

Entries for the league will close April 4 and the "uniform" of clubs in the league will include caps and sweat shirts of uniform type with such other apparel as players may choose to wear.

Preliminary to the drafting of the league schedule, the league committee will assign each club to play one game against an opponent the committee may designate, this to be a basis of dividing the entries into two divisions of clubs of apparent equal strength, following which the league schedule will be drafted.

The "moguls" will meet again April 5.

Auto Firm Takes Over Hamburger Stand

Effective April 1, Hamburger Jack's, the lunch room opposite the bell tower on the Plaza, will be under the management of the Russell J. Wilson automobile agency, but it won't be a lunch room any more.

According to Cecil George, agency manager, the Russell J. Wilson company, which has been using the adjoining property for used car display, will convert the lunch room into an office and sales room.

Driver Escapes As Car Leaves Highway

Lyle Patrick, driver for the Webber Creek Dairy, escaped with cuts and bruises when the truck he was driving plunged off the highway on Lower Main Street near the railroad crossing on Wednesday evening. The car was rather badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen D. Stevens spent the week-end with relatives at Merced.

Stud Poker Declared Game Of Skill

LONDON (UP)—Stud poker, like cricket, is a game of skill and not of chance, Police Magistrate Walter Hedley ruled today in dismissing a summons against a card club on charges of gaming.

Cyclists Invite Neighbor Clubs

Hangtown Couriers Get Help
Of Commerce Chamber In
Boosting County Tours

Hangtown Couriers, motorcycle club No. 502, this week has sent letters to twenty-three similar clubs in the state, outlining a plan of summer activity and inviting the participation of the clubs in the special events.

The Couriers have the co-operation of the El Dorado County Chamber of Commerce in sending out the invitations, with which are inclosed a short history of the county and a map showing the projected trips into El Dorado Forest.

The projected tours or "runs" as the cyclists call them, to which the clubs are being invited follow:

Alpine highway via Pi-Pi Valley; Uncle Tom's via Georgetown; to Lake Tahoe; to Silver Lake via Plymouth and Jackson; to Orelli Ranch via Ice House Hill; to Ham's Station via Stonebreaker and Iron Mountain; to Yosemite via Gardnerville, returning via Sonora; to Angel's Camp during the Jumping Frog Jubilee.

Tom McGrath is the Courier road captain and it is understood that with the exception of the Angel's Camp tour, the dates for other events will be governed by weather and road conditions.

NEW ENTENTE IN EUROPE SEEN

Britain Rejects Soviet Offer
Of Conference; Will Uphold
Treaty Commitments

WARSAW (UP)—Formation of a "Baltic-Black Sea axis," a buffer zone of nations between Russia and Germany, appeared nearer today as Poland and Lithuania prepared to negotiate for re-establishment of telephone, telegraph, postal and railroad communications.

Political observers saw in the negotiations the first step toward the next axis, which they believed might develop into a powerful zone of nations including Poland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and Roumania.

There was some speculation also as to whether a "Baltic-Black Sea axis," though it would be formed as a neutral bloc, might not have a tendency to waver toward co-operation with Germany.

BRITISH POLICY

LONDON (UP)—Great Britain is ready to go to war if necessary, Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain told a crowded House of Commons today in a momentous declaration on Britain's foreign policy.

Chamberlain rejected the invitation of Soviet Russia to the principal powers, excepting Germany, Italy and Japan, to hold an international conference to stop aggression.

"Peace is the greatest interest of the British empire, but that does not mean that nothing will make us fight," Chamberlain said.

He was greeted with tremendous cheers when he added:

"We know that in war there are no winners."

He warned, however, that Britain might have to fight under existing commitments, without referring directly to France or Czechoslovakia.

"We are bound by certain treaty obligations which entail on us the necessity of fighting if occasion arises," he explained.

Teachers Offer Reading Plan

Tentative Revision Of County
Study Course Suggested After
Recent Committee Meeting

The committee on reading of the county Teachers' Association met recently at the home of Mrs. Kathleen Dwyer, rural school supervisors, at El Dorado and developed a tentative revision of the reading course for the county schools encompassing the suggestions noted below:

1. In view of the opinion of the association and the results of research and study, literature should be studied on an extensive or wide choice of material rather than an intensive study of a few "classics." Children should read widely on a selected group of representative authors and "classics." The Elson Junior Literature set would be a basis for upper group reading.

2. Since most of our schools are one-teacher or multi-grade teacher unit schools, the upper grades should be divided into three reading groups, based on ability rather than grades;

3. Phonics or any similar treatment of sound elements in words should be taught whenever there is need of such.

21,800 Pages Covered In Labor Dispute

PITTSBURGH (UP)—The National Labor Relation Board's "marathon" hearing in the Weirton Steel Co. case goes into its second phase April 4 when defence witnesses will answer anti-union charges that witnesses have made against the company.

After 28 weeks of board testimony that filled 21,800 pages, Isadore Polier, NLRB attorney, on March 11 announced: "The board rests."

This labor case revolving around Weirton Steel Company's relations with its employees, will shift back to Stebensville, O., April 4, when the company will open its defense and place witnesses on the stand.

RAIN EXCEEDS 47 INCHES

Placerville Precipitation
For March To 9 A. M. Thursday
Is 11.82 Inches

Rainfall measured in Placerville for the season up to 9 a. m. Thursday totals 47.13 inches which is approximately six and one-third inches more than the annual "normal" of 40.46 inches.

The accompanying table shows rainfall recorded in Placerville on seven-teen of the first 24 days of the month, and 11.82 inches to the local precipitation total since the last day of February.

This exceeds the total rainfall for March of last year (10.12 inches) and exceeds by more than five inches the total rainfall in March for any year dating back to 1928, when the figure was 13.16 inches. In this year (1928) too, although March rainfall was 13 inches the total for the season was but 36.16 inches.

Our table of rainfall "normals" (arrived at by compiling the rainfall figures for 50 years) shows a "normal" rainfall of 28.12 inches on March 1 and of 34.77 inches on April 1 indicating an expectancy of six and one-half inches of rain during the month of March which is, by the figures shown for this year, now almost doubled.

The total precipitation for the year to date, 47.13 inches, is about three inches greater than the total for last year, but is about three inches less than the total for the year 1933-'36. Farther back than 1936, the rainfall recorded to date is greater than any seasonal total as far back as 1910, when the total for the season was 55.31 inches.

Snow depths as reported Thursday morning by the state Division of Highways maintenance office at Smith Flat placed the snowline at about twelve miles east of Placerville. This was unchanged from Wednesday, indicating that despite rains Wednesday and

Bay Newsmen To Vote On Strike

Guild Calls Election To Be Held Sunday For Workers On
S. F., Oakland Papers

SAN FRANCISCO (UP)—Guildsmen employed in the editorial and business departments of five bay area newspapers will participate in a strike vote to be taken at a special membership meeting Sunday, the executive council of the Northern California Newspaper Guild announced today.

The vote will decide whether the Guild's negotiating committee may call a strike if and when it considers such action necessary, Guild officers said.

Unites involved are those on the Examiner, News, Chronicle and Call-Bulletin, all of San Francisco, and The Post-Enquirer, published in Oakland.

Guild officers said the strike vote was called "due to refusal of the publishers (San Francisco-Oakland Publishers Association) to agree to fundamental demands adopted by the Guild membership at a special meeting on March 13."

ROBERT COMBELLACK IS CO-DESIGNER OF AID TO TRAFFIC SAFETY

Robert Combellack, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Combellack of Placerville and a graduate of our county high school, is co-designer of a machine which may prove of material aid in the testing of applicants for automobile drivers' licenses.

Robert is attending Stockton Junior College and with Carl Zumstein, a Stockton youth, has developed a machine which measures a driver's reaction time from accelerator to brake at the flash of a red light. Both are students in the junior college radio technology course.

The two boys assembled the "machine" out of an empty spool, an automatic pencil, an old portable phonograph, two bolts and a tin can lid, and several hundred feet of wire and—it works!

Both confessed to a reporter for The Stockton Record that they aspire to be radio technicians "when they grow up," and we must say they are off to a good start.

MISSOURI FLAT

ADELE ENGSTROM

The Industrial Arts Club of Smith Flat was entertained last Thursday by the Missouri Flat Sewing Club in the home of Mrs. Claude Long. A tamale lunch was served to the twenty-eight guests and members present. Quilts and rugs that have been made by the Missouri Flat Club were displayed and sewing was the principal activity of the afternoon. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Ferval Ellis, Mrs. Edith Baalke, Mrs. Ange Cole, Mrs. Pay Ruppel, Mrs. Wanda Jacquier, Mrs. Marion Carpenter, Mrs. Merna O'Dare, Mrs. Eva Jorgensen, Mrs. Ethel Phegley, all members of the Industrial Arts Club. Other guests were Mrs. C. Miller from Coloma, Mrs. Wm. Wegersma from Fruit Ridge, Mrs. Margaret Swartz of Nevada, and Mrs. Fred Graydon of Missouri Flat.

The card party Saturday night was a huge success, there being twenty tables played. Mrs. Claude Long had charge of the refreshment committee and was assisted by Mrs. Badge Tatum, Mrs. Verne Tatum, and Mrs. Wilson Bryan. Mrs. Badge Tatum and Mrs. Long were in charge of prizes. We wish to thank everyone for their kind co-operation in coming to our party and, as we are having a series, we hope to see you again.

Mrs. Roy Marks and sons, Irving and Melvin, were seen wading through the rain in Placerville Saturday.

Mrs. Gowdy has been reported ill this week and we hope she has a speedy recovery.

The next Farm Bureau meeting will be Friday evening March 26th at 8 o'clock. Pictures and a good program will be the evening activities. There will be a business meeting followed by refreshments. Be sure and bring your cups and spoons.

At the last Farm Bureau meeting there was a heated discussion as to why Webber Creek should become the dumping grounds by people of this and other vicinities. We want to keep our community clean so it will be a pleasure instead of a disgrace to travel on the road to Placerville. At the present time there is rubbish, old bones, and tin cans dumped over the banks of the highway. So we ask all those who have dumped rubbish to please consider our fuming on this matter. We thank you.

LOTUS

Spring opened Monday with a nice clear day. The hills are looking nice and green with oak trees coming out in bloom and manzanita coming in bloom and wild flowers of all kinds are out. The orchards in Coloma and Lotus sections will soon be worth looking at. We sure have some tough weather the past six weeks, and now we look for some nice sunshine to come and brighten things up.

George Luneman has taken it into his hands to clean up the Catholic cemetery at Coloma by fixing up the fence around the lot, grubbing out and burning up the brush and putting the cemetery in good condition. It surely was in a bad way as no work had been done for some six years past. No doubt all those having relatives laid to rest there will come forward with a liberal donation and assist George in putting everything in first class condition which will take two or three men some ten days to complete.

Dud Freeland came up from Sacramento Tuesday of last week and returned Thursday evening. While here he assisted his caretaker in building a fence and doing other work on his farm here. Dud has recently purchased another new automobile, a De Soto coupe, and he feels very proud of it.

Wylie Harding, special field agent for the Fireman's Fund Insurance Company, accompanied by Mrs. McClain, came up from his Sacramento office the past week-end and called on Charles Rasmussen, the company agent, here, to look over his records and attend to other business. He found everything O. K. and left here for Placerville and from there to his home.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bacchi and Irma Lawyer took advantage of the spring opening and drove over to Placerville Monday to attend to business matters and see how the city looks after the recent rains.

Mr. and Mrs. Byron Bacchi and State Trapper, Morris Jones, and Mrs. Jones, spent Sunday in Siskiyou County visiting with friends.

Gerald Rasmussen came over from Placerville early Sunday morning and put in the day laying a new two-inch plank floor over the gangway that leads into the basement of the Rasmussen home. It is some twenty years or more that this way was put down by Fred Rasmussen and his brother, Charlie and had most completely gone to the cause of a new floor.

The card party given at the C. C. Long home in Missouri Flat was well attended by the whist players from here. Henry Bacchi, Violet Reaside, Irma Lawyer, Florence Hines, Will Gal- leher and Frank Galleher of Coloma were those who took in the affair. Three prizes were brought home by those from here and a good crowd was on hand. The supper, after the game, was in every way up to the queen's taste and all had a good time.

Among those seen on our streets the past week were Will Kelly of Kelsey, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Tidd, Len Dorn- mody of Placerville, Mr. and Mrs. E. Loveland.

Walter Leavitt, manager of the Pacific Fruit Company in Placerville, with his wife and children and a gentleman friend, was in our town the past week. Leavitt was interviewing some of our growers in behalf of his company for the coming fruit crop.

Another big event is to take place at the community hall in Coloma, Saturday night, March 26. A whist card party will be given for the benefit of the hall and a large crowd is looked for. The prizes will be something nice as will the mid-night spread after the game. Remember the date and come to Coloma for a good time.

LIVESTOCK PRODUCTION UP 14 PER CENT IN PAST YEAR

SACRAMENTO. — Income of California livestock producers not only was greater in 1937 than in 1936 but the total income from livestock and livestock products in California also occupied a larger place in the total agricultural income of the state than it did in 1936.

Those deductions are made from the annual livestock summary issue by statistician George Scott of the Federal-State Crop Reporting Service at the state Department of Agriculture.

The estimated value of production of meat animals and wool in California during 1937 amounted to $70,900,000, an increase of 14 per cent over the corresponding total of 1936. The increase in annual production values from meat animals and wool since 1933 has been $38,000,000 representing a total gain of 113 per cent.

The aggregate inventory values of cattle, sheep, hogs, and work stock in California as of January 1, 1938, was estimated by the service at $159,653,000, a decrease of about three per cent since a year earlier. However, the corresponding farm values in 1933 and 1934 were only about half of the present farm values, Scott said.

EXTORTION SUSPECTS IN KIDNAP PLOT HELD WITHOUT BAIL

NEW ROCHELLE, N. Y. (UP) — Werner Fred Luck, 23 year old German born chauffeur, and Edward John Penn, 18 year old high school student, were arraigned today on charges of attempting to extort money from Murray Levine, father of kidnaped Peter Levine.

Both waived examination and were taken to the county jail at east view to await grand jury action. They were accused of attempting to send a note to Levine demanding the $30,000 ransom which he had offered to pay for the return of his 12 year old son, missing since February 24.

City Judge Thomas N. Fasso refused bail, asserting that the crime which Luck and Penn were accused of committing was "almost as atrocious and abominable as the original kidnaping."

Horseman Travels 3,000 Miles In 7 Years

UTICA, N. Y. (UP) — After traveling 3,000 miles by horseback, Ray Carr, World War veteran of Utica, is glad to be out of the saddle for awhile and back in his home town for the first time in seven years.

Carr was working on a ranch near Ozona, Tex., until early last fall, when drought forced the ranch owner to sell his cattle. Carr decided to start out for Utica, so he mounted Smoky, his favorite horse, and began his travels.

Because winter was approaching, he had to chart a southern course and accordingly traveled through 14 states. Dodging automobiles seemed to be one of Carr's main problems.

"In the south I kept pretty well to the dirt roads," he said, "but in going through Pennsylvania and New York I was dodging cars all the way."

Farm Tenants Found To Have Better Chance

ST. LOUIS (UP) — The lot of 3,000-4,000 sharecroppers and tenant farmers in the United States has shown a gradual improvement during the past two years, according to J. R. Butler, president of the Tenant Farmers' Union, an affiliate of the Committee for Industrial Organization.

"Our ultimate aim," Butler said, "is for every sharecropper to own his own land. When that is brought about the union will naturally have no further justification for existence."

DEER ON RELIEF

PORTOLA (UP) — Owing to the heavy snows which prevent deer from getting their natural food supply, two herds of 1,000 animals each are being fed by contributions taken up by sportsmen here at Reno and the Nevada side of the state line generally.

PARADE OF SPORTS

By HENRY McLEMORE
(United Press Staff Writer)

BRADENTON, Fla., (UP) — It was a mighty pretty setting for a comeback. The sun was big and warm. The sky was a dazzling blue, and thousands of the folk who knew and liked him, were pulling for him, filled the friendly little stands and spilled out into the playing field.

Only one thing was missing to make it a perfect day for Paul (Daffy) Dean, and that was that Paul (Daffy) Dean didn't have anything to make a comeback with.

Even those first two innings, when the Boston Bees didn't get a run off him, didn't fool anyone. Paul wasn't the same Paul who came bounding up from the bushes in 1934 to win 19 games and then "fog" the ball past the Detroit Tigers for two victories in the world series.

His fast ball, a smoker, was his money ball then, just at it was in 1935, when he won 19 more. He hadn't made more than three or four throws yesterday when it became obvious that his arm injury had cost him his pay pitch. All he had was a slow, side arm curve, and it was delivered with timidity. You could almost feel him, worry every time he wound up and let the ball go.

But it was the third inning that revealed his helplessness. The Bees butchered him that inning, hitting everything he threw up to the plate for nine runs. He had little or nothing on the ball. In the old days, before his arm went lame, he met troubles by rearing back and throwing it past the batters. He didn't throw a single hard one against the Bees.

When the side finally was retired, I slipped out of the press box and followed him to the clubhouse. It was empty when we reached it and Paul, sort of sagging all over, slumped down on the bench in front of his locker.

He sat for a moment and then started taking off his dirty uniform, very slowly, like a man dead tired after a day of hunting. Watching him, I remembered his big days. When it was Daffy and Dizzy this, and Daffy and Dizzy that. When every kid wanted his autograph. When he could and did hold out for fat contracts. When the pay checks zipped in like his fast one, and everything was bright and rosy.

Now, there he sat on a bench. His comeback a failure. No contract of any kind. Through for good, perhaps, at 26, just when he should be coming to his peak. Just a big country boy from Texas, who never was daffy, but got called that just because we sportswriters had to have something alliterative for Dizzy. Never did anything dat-

Corsets For Pigs May Yield Tender Pork

KITTERY POINT, Me. (UP) — Corsets for pigs will give lovers of fine pork more tender morsels, says Oscar T. Bookhart, inventor of the new device.

His prize 914-pound porker Charley is wearing the corset which Brookhart declares allows the flavor of food and fat to permeate the meat more thoroughly.

fy in his life. Just a quiet plodding fellow who liked to be left alone.

It was Paul who broke the silence. He looked up, and remembering me from last spring when I "tried out" with the Cards, said:

"Durn, I'm tired."

I asked him if his arm hurt him—if the bothersome kink came back.

"No it just got tired. Awfully plum tired. I couldn't hardly wind it up it was so worn out."

Did he think the strength would come back?

"Don't know. Can't tell. Sho' wish it would, though."

475 FIXED LIGHTS AID SKIPPER'S PLYING OHIO RIVER

EVANSVILLE, Ind. (UP)—The responsibility of keeping several hundred signal lights burning along the Ohio River shore is a "tough job in any man's life," Capt. J. Schletker, master of the Greenbrier, a river boat lighthouse tender, explained today.

Schletker, who boasts of his 15 years in the service only recently took command of the Greenbrier, a 140-foot stern wheel steamboat, and its crew of 15 men. The Greenbrier has made the rounds on the Ohio tending navigation lights and buoys since 1924.
